Updates and Changes for 2018-2019

Theme: Define Your Purpose

HOSA Service Project: National Pediatric Cancer Foundation

General Information

Payment	We will be enforcing the finance policy in the policies and procedures manual. You can find this manual on the Georgia HOSA website beginning August 1. 30 days after the conference payment deadline, a $25 late fee will be applied, and advisor and school bookkeeper will be contacted. 60 days after conference payment deadline, another $25 late fee will be applied, advisor, bookkeeper and administration will be contacted, and chapters will be blocked from the HOSA system. The block will be lifted when balance is resolved.
Late Registration T-Shirts	T-shirts will not be included with late registration
Competitive Events	No competitive event information will be released until National HOSA releases all competitive event information in Fall 2018
Chaperones	Georgia HOSA recommends for the safety and optimum experience of the student that a ratio of chaperone to student be at 1:20

Events

Fall Leadership Rally	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Statesman Test will be online. There will be a testing window in September similar to HIE and SQT, but advisors may proctor this test, as they were the proctor onsite at Rally. Awards will take place onsite at Rally.
