A bus will only depart from locations other than Atlanta and the I-75 corridor if a minimum of 30 individuals will be travelling from those locations. In the event a bus cannot be scheduled from your location, you will be notified on April 15th. If a bus cannot be provided, you may choose to travel to the closest available pickup location or deduct the cost of bus travel from your total trip package.

Participants agree that:

Personal safety and liability for accidents is a personal liability for each individual participating. Unified Event Solutions LLC, Georgia HOSA, the organizer of this travel group, local school districts and colleges, HOSA chapters and advisors, and local chaperones are not responsible for the health and safety or loss of personal property of any person participating in this travel group. All individuals must carry their own personal health insurance.

Every person is fully aware of the dangers and perils of the trip. No person, during day or night, is to leave the hotel alone. No minor student is to leave the hotel without an adult chaperone. Money, including traveler's checks and valuables, should be kept in a safe deposit box. The hotel itself is not safe. Doors should be chain locked at all times. This travel group assumes no responsibility for the personal safety, loss of personal property, accidents or the health of any individual participating.

If the participant is a minor, a parental guardian must sign this form.

As a parental guardian, I permit the minor child to participate in this travel group with the understanding that he/she is personally responsible for safety and liability as stated above.
